

3d art portfolio site

My final project will be a website to post my 3d art portfolio.

I plan on making a site which will house all of the 3d art I have done and have the art separated by character and prop art. I will also include an about me page and an interactive contact me page. I will also have a section for art commissions and for other art and overall portfolio pieces.